Art on the Llano Estacado

Dear Patron,

Museums are places of wonder, giving everyone in the community opportunities to explore, learn or simply enjoy seeing objects they might otherwise experience. Your generous sponsorship of the Art on the Llano Estacado Show and Sale allows the Museum at Texas Tech University Association to provide quality programming, exhibits, and a variety of free educational opportunities that compliment the Museum's outstanding collections.

Your sponsorship helps the Association bring in artists and subject experts for gallery talks, provide visits to the Museum for school children, and continue annual fun and education opportunities such as Dino Day that attract hundreds of families from across the South Plains.

As a sponsor for Art on the Llano Estacado, you'll be part of a unique event that brings together great artists and distinguished collectors. This year's show and sale will feature around 40 premier artists from around Texas and the Southwest displaying around 200 works in a variety of mediums.

List of Events

Thursday, June 25th – Celebration of Artists cocktail party and the Legacy Award winner recognition. The Association invites our donors and sponsors to meet the artists and to kick-off the 2026 Art on the Llano Estacado Show and Sale.

Friday, June 26th – Ticketed gala and sale. This event includes an open bar, dinner, awards and live entertainment. Attendees will have the first opportunity to purchase artwork from the show.

Saturday, June 27th – The exhibition is open to the public and available art may be purchased from 10 am to 4 pm.

Sunday, June 28th – A private brunch for artists and sponsors to celebrate and conclude the Art on the Llano Estacado Show and Sale. The exhibition is open to the public and available art is available for purchase from 12 pm to 4 pm.

Sincerely,

Jouana Stravlo,
Executive Administrator

WHY YOUR SUPPORT IS IMPORTANT

Museums are about education, whether you realize it or not. From dinosaurs to art to clothing worn by generations of Texas men and women, our goal is that a walk through our galleries will provide a few hours of entertainment, but most importantly will spark the curiosity of children and adults alike.

Education is a major part of the American Alliance of Museums accreditation process. Only about 5% of the nation's museums hold this accreditation. The Museum at Texas Tech University is among them. The Museum's Education Division is an important part of our success.

The Division has traditionally created in-person annual events that bring thousands of children and adults into the Museum. During the pandemic, events like Dino Day, El Dia de Los Muertos, and our summer camps were transformed into large take-home kits that provided the same type of hands-on educational activities.

Currently, the division reaches into area schools providing educational activities related to our collections and teacher training tied to the state's curriculum objectives.

Your support of the Art on the Llano Estacado and membership in the Association allows us to provide free or low-cost activities for both children and adults.

OUR MISSION

The Association promotes and supports the Museum and assists in securing monies, members, collections and general good will for the educational and building programs of the Museum.

ABOUT US

The Association began 97 years ago when a group of visionary people came together to discuss the need to collect and preserve the art, culture and history of Lubbock and the region. The Association is one of the oldest continuously functioning organizations in Lubbock and serves as a group of community volunteers offering unique and broad support of the Museum and staff.

With current membership of over 200, the Association has assisted with various projects and programs that have enhanced, updated and expanded the collections, services, programs and construction of the Museum. The Association is also active in the educational programming of the Museum by supporting activities such as Dino Day, Jump Start and Teacher Workshops.

ABOUT OUR EVENT

The Art on the Llano Estacado Art Exhibition and Sale is in keeping with the Llano Estacado's rich tradition in the visual and performing arts. This annual event, hosted by the Museum at Texas Tech University Association, draws hundreds of art buyers and lovers, alike.

This year, we will feature around 40 nationally recognized artists, who will work alongside your sponsorship in support of the Museum at Texas Tech University. As our biggest fundraiser of the fiscal year, event proceeds will largely enable the Association to fund educational programming for children and adults, traveling exhibits, and art acquisitions at the Museum at Texas Tech University throughout this coming year.

Art on the Llano Estacado

Dear Business,

Your advertisement in the Art on the Llano Estacado Show and Sale catalog helps the Museum at Texas Tech University Association continue to provide quality programming, exhibits, and a variety of free educational opportunities that compliment the Museum's outstanding collections.

The catalog will be available at a special ticketed event June 26th in the Helen DeVitt Jones Sculpture Court at the Museum at Texas Tech University and during when the show and sale is open to the public June 27th and 28th. The event features more than 40 artists from multiple states, offering high-quality traditional and contemporary works in a variety of mediums.

The full-color catalog that compliments the show and sale features artist biographies, one representative work from each artist, and a limited number of ads from fine art galleries and other businesses. Hundreds of catalogs will be given to the serious art collectors and our sponsors who attend the event. You'll receive copies of the catalog after the show. Any remaining copies will be offered in the Museum Shop.

This is an excellent opportunity for your business to reach a desirable demographic. This is an effective investment to promote your business to serious fine art collectors and a public dedicated to contributing to their community.

Advertising space in the catalog is limited; therefore, we ask that you reserve your advertisement space by contacting Jouana Stravlo (artonthellano@gmail.com) by May 20th. Available ad sizes and costs are listed on the next two pages. Thank you for your consideration and we hope you will join us.

Sincerely,

Jouana Stravlo
